

This document will contain all of the rules that group A5 will adhere to for the duration of the CMPT 370 project.

- Must obey the Criminal Code of Canada
- Must obey the U of S code of conduct for non-Academic matters
- Must obey the U of S code of conduct for Academic matters
- Everyone will attend all the TA meetings (unless reasonable exceptions arise)
- Everyone will attend outside meetings (unless reasonable exceptions arise)
 - All members will be given adequate time and foreknowledge of when these meetings will occur
- Everyone will come to TA meetings prepared and have something to contribute
- Everyone will be respectful of others ideas and comments
- Everyone will have an equal opportunity to express their ideas, design and input
- If there are any disagreements with ideas we will put those ideas to vote to decide which conflicting idea we will go with
- If there are any conflicts within the group that do not revolve around the project (as in they are personal) then those conflicts will be settled in a peaceful manner with the other group members acting as moderators.
- If there is an with a group member not fulfilling their assigned task, a meeting will be called to address it and determine the nature of the problem